

THE OFFICE OF DEVELOPMENT CREDIT

DCA SEMINAR FOR USAID CONTRACTORS

The Office of Development Credit (ODC) is pleased to invite USAID contractors to a full-day seminar on the Development Credit Authority (DCA). DCA is a USAID financing tool, managed by ODC, which mobilizes local capital to fund sustainable development initiatives. DCA allows USAID to issue loan guarantees, portfolio guarantees, portable guarantees, and bond guarantees to private sector lenders for up to 50% of the risk from a loan.

The DCA Seminar is designed to introduce DCA and its products to USAID contractors and consultants whose projects may benefit from USAID partial loan guarantees. The seminar will provide an overview of DCA, the role for contractors, and detail the application process. Time will be allotted for individual questions and networking with ODC relationship managers.
